Drawing a dragon is a great way to show your creativity, but it may be challenging to draw the head because it has a lot of detail. Luckily, you can start sketching the head with basic shapes before adding in the features. Fantasy dragons usually have pointier snouts and are the most common types in Western culture, while Chinese dragons have boxier heads.

That is a great dragon head!!! Super job. I love the dragon concept of age and fantasy. The head would look great just pushing up out of hole in the garden, dirt kind of piled up. Kind of a waking up after a long sleep. Again superb job! 0. stefstimpy. 6 years ago

Laolongtou ('Old Dragon's Head') is where the east end of the Great Wall of the Ming Dynasty meets the Bo Sea. It's part of the Shanhai Pass Great Wall defense system covering mountains, sea, plain, and town. The Great Wall at Laolongtou is like a huge dragon lying with its head on the beach and mouth in the sea.

Old Dragon's Head is considered to be the start of the Great Wall, built during the Ming Dynasty, and it does resemble a dragon resting its weary head by the Bohai Sea.
The Dragon God is the dispenser of rain as well as the zoomorphic representation of the yang masculine power of generation. In this capacity as the rulers of water and weather, the dragon is more anthropomorphic in form, often depicted as a humanoid, dressed in a king's costume, but with a dragon head wearing a king's headdress.

European dragons are legendary creatures in folklore and mythology among the overlapping cultures of Europe. The Roman poet Virgil in his poem Culex lines 163-201, describing a shepherd having a fight with a big constricting snake, calls it "serpens" and also "draco", showing that in his time the two words were probably interchangeable. In and after the early Middle Ages, the European dragon...

Dragon's Head is a rarely visited summit that resides off the southern slopes of San Gorgonio Mountain in the San Gorgonio Wilderness area of San Bernardino National Forest. This is rather surprising as it is the fourth highest recognized summit in Southern California after San Gorgonio Mountain, Jepson Peak and Bighorn Mountain and it narrowly edges out Anderson Peak by 6 feet in elevation.

Draw long hair around the dragon's head and legs. Chinese dragons have hair around their faces and the bases of their legs. Draw clumps of hair that end in a point coming out from where the dragon's head connects to its neck. Then draw hair in the same way around where the dragon's legs connect to the body for additional detail.
